He Is Chosen to Head General Convention of Disciples of Christ.

ATLANTA, GA., October 12.—Rev. Walter M. White, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, to-day was elected president of the general convention of the Disciples of Christ at the church's annual meeting here, and will preside over the international conventions of that church to be held in Los Angeles in 1915.

The question of abolishing the general delegate system of annual convention, over which there has been a spirited contest during the six days' sessions here, was settled to-day, so far as the present meeting is concerned, by Rev. W. H. Book, of Columbus, Ind., withdrawing his resolution proposing abolition. Country meats remain scarce and in good demand. ## NEGROES IN TEN YEARS

Gain for Decade is 11.2 Per Cent. Com-pared With 20.8 Among Native Whiten and 30.7 Foreign Born. WASHINGTON, October 12.—The number of negroes in the United States proper, in 1910, was 9,827,763, compared with 20.8 per cent among native whites 932,763, the Consus Burgan appropried 993,769, the Census Bureau announced to-day. In 1910, negroes formed 10.7 per cent of the total population, against 11.6 per cent in 1900. The increase for the decade was 11.2 per cent, compared with 20.8 per cent among native whites and of 30.7 per cent among the foreign born whites.

The number of negro rural dwellers was 7,138,534, forming 14.5 per cent of the rural population.

Of a total of 2,953 counties in the United States, there were only 110 in which there were no negroes, and there were fifty-three counties in 1910, against fifty-five counties in 1900, in which 75 per cent of the population was negro.

Of the total number of negroes, years of age and over, 2,227,731, or 30.4 per cent, were reported as illiterate. The percentage of illiterates decreased from 57.1 in 1890 to 30.4 in 1910.

The total value of farm property operated by negroes was $1,144,181,000 against $499,941,000 in 1900.

NO NEW PEACE EFFORTS

President Sets at Rest Reports About Recent Representations.
WASHINGTON, October 12.—Various reports about efforts of the Washington government to set on foot peace negotiations between the warring European nations were set at rest today by President Wilson. He told callers that he had made no direct peace representations to any of the powers since his first note tendering the good offices of the United States.
Oscar Straus, former ambassador to Turkey, and a prominent peace advocate, called at the White House during the day, and spent a quarter of an hour in conference with the President. He said afterwards no new plans for a peace movement had been discussed.
